

IBO Radio

For a number of years this was the official site for IBO Radio. Content is from the site's 2012 archived pages.

Ibogaine is a naturally occurring psychoactive substance found in plants in the Apocynaceae family such as Tabernanthe iboga, Voacanga africana and Tabernaemontana undulata. It is a psychedelic with dissociative properties. ~Wikipedia

An aside:

In the intervening years since Peter Frank's book was published the US government unfortunately has not changed its attitude towards Ibogaine. Today, it is still illegal in the United States since it is considered a Schedule I drug. To varying degrees, it's available in other countries, including Canada, Mexico, and several European countries. Although like marijuana there are medical uses for Ibogaine particularly in its use in treating addiction for opiates and other highly-addictive drugs, with the GOP controlling the government and Jeff Sessions in the DOJ, we can forget about its drug status changing any time soon. When the men from the carpet cleaning Brooklyn based company I had hired to clean all my rugs arrived this past week to pick up all my antique carpets for cleaning, one of them noticed Frank's book: Ibogaine Explained: Everything You Need to Know About the World's Most Powerful Psychedelic on my table top.

He is from the UK where Ibogaine is classified as an unlicensed, experimental medicine which is legal to possess but illegal to distribute. We got into a lengthy discussion about reports of toxicity-related complications with ibogaine use. He was pretty knowledgeable about Ibogaine. But duty called and all my rugs were in the truck ready to be cleaned and in one case to have some repair work done on the rug's fringes. He said he would like to talk further about Ibogaine when the rugs were returned. I said I would look forward to it.

Another believer is the potential for Ibogaine. We still have a long way to go.

Please purchase and download Peter Frank’s new book, “Ibogaine Explained: Everything You Need to Know About the World’s Most Powerful Psychedelic,” on Kindle E-Book. The Print version is coming soon. Here is the description:

NOTE: A paperback edition of this book will be available in May.

Ibogaine is the world's most powerful psychedelic. It has helped thousands of people overcome addiction to pain medicines, heroine, crack/cocaine, meth, and alcohol without withdrawal symptoms or cravings. It has also helped many people with depression, PTSD, and "legal" addictions.

This book will tell you everything you need to know about Ibogaine: its history, the scientific research, how a treatment works, and how to make the most of your treatment in the weeks and months that follow.

Peter Frank has been working with ibogaine for over eight years. He is the former host of Ibo-Radio, an online radio show dedicated to Ibogaine and psychedelics.

Return of the IBO-Radio Podcast with IBO-Segments

Posted on December 1, 2012 by Damon

Tonight IBO-Radio.com returns with 30 minute interviews with a theme...IBO-Segments. Our interview tonight at 6 PM EST will be Jonathan Dickinson and the theme will be GITA past, present, and future. Please tune in here, at www.blogtalkradio.com/iboradio1 or download our podcast at <https://itunes.apple.com/us/podcast/iboradio-blog-talk-radio-feed/id458981765>.

Jonathan Dickinson is head of GITA, the Global Ibogaine Therapist Alliance. From the GITA website the organization's description reads,

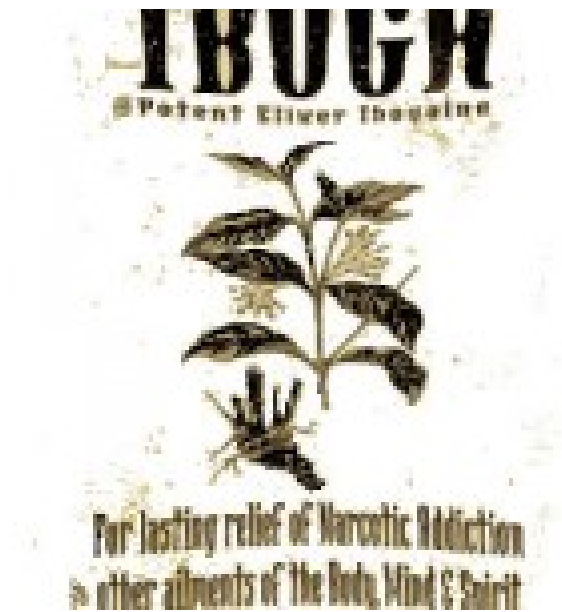

"The Global Ibogaine Therapist Alliance (GITA) is an international network of individuals, clinics, and organizations dedicated to the thoughtful use of the West-African shrub, Tabernanthe Iboga, and its derivatives for the treatment of addiction and enhanced psychological well being....GITA was founded in Sayulita, Mexico in March of 2009 at the First International Treatment Providers Conference."

IBO-Providers (Part One) — Sara Glatt

Posted on July 11, 2012 by Damon

Sara Glatt has been working with ibogaine over 12 years. She has helped, and even saved many peoples lives, by caring for them, and making ibogaine available.

Sara Glatt has become one of the best-known ibogaine treatment providers for the Western world.

She is presently incarcerated and awaiting trial, please sign this petition to stop Dutch prosecution of Sara. <http://www.change.org/petitions/dutch-authorities-stop-the-prosecution-of-ibo...>

IBO-Doctors (Part Six) — Dr. Anwar

Posted on July 9, 2012 by Damon

Dr. Anwar talks to Damon from Durban, South Africa about his personal journey from addiction to healing and how Ibogaine shows outstanding potential in helping addicts break the cycle of addiction and living a better, more positive, sober life.

IBO-Doctors (Part Five) — Dr. Yashpal

Posted on July 4, 2012 by Damon

Dr. Yashpal talks about his ND practice and his quest to bring his patients to physical, mental, and spiritual healing via entheogens such as Peyote, San Pedro, P.C. Mushrooms, Yage, and Iboga.

IBO-Doctors (Part Four) — Dr. Chris Jenks

Posted on June 17, 2012 Damon

Dr. Jenks talks to Peter about his role as a scientist in developing Iboga extraction techniques, but also about how Iboga and Ibogaine, and other entheogenic experiences, inform and challenge him on his personal, spiritual path.

Peter Frank

Peter Frank found ibogaine in his early 20s while going through a painful existential crisis. Ibogaine took him right to the heart of that crisis - and just as the pain became unbearable, ibogaine revealed to him the simple beauty of being alive.

Contact

Prospective, IBO Radio Guests:

Please contact IBO Radio if you would like to appear on the show as a guest or want to see IBO Radio ask a specific person on as a guest. IBO Radio will attempt to look at every angle of the Ibogaine Advocacy Movement. So, with that in mind, our shows will focus the bulk of interviews on Iboga/Ibogaine providers, suppliers, activists, Bwitists, and investors working in failed drug policy reversal and, in the very least, Schedule II status in the USA for Ibogaine and other beneficial entheogens. This list is not to exclude other categories of guests that will appear on our internet radio broadcast as we progress, gain a regular audience, and grow in financial support.

General Contact:

For all other questions, comments, ideas for improvement, or just to introduce yourself and tell us how you like the show.
